Motion to Support SPCOA

171/18

Moved by TAYLOR that whereas rats present an ever-growing danger of affecting the quality and sale of grains, and thereby affecting the sale and lively hood of our grain farmers; Whereas the presents of rats can adversely affect the health and wellbeing of anyone who comes in contact;

Whereas the present rat control program has reduced the number of rats dramatically and showed that the right direction has been taken to eradicate the rat population;

Whereas it is a well-known fact that if left unattended or efforts are reduced the rat population can and will in a very short time be back to original numbers once more;

Therefore we the council of the RM of Marquis No. 191, members of the Sask. Pest Control Association recommend that the ministry return the RAT ERADICATION PROGRAM back to its original status and funding, to ensure the program continues to produce positive results.
